

The Oil Tanker Accident at the Sundarbans: Devastated Life of Women

Conveying the warning to women is an emergency

Anwara, a lighthouse with ardent zeal

It Is Important to have GENDER-WISE data on Disaster- A Guardian Report

Female victims of Disaster get lower chance to Struggle

Woman's hazard at workplace

Interviews

Not yet woman friendly: the process has begun though: Dilruba Haider

The Total system is not women friendly: an anonymous woman worker

We are trying; we are progressed quite a bit: Hasin Jahan

Women preserve seed during disaster: Farida Akter

Decision should be taken regarding women after talking with them: Murshida Akhter

And miles to go: Farah Kabir

Substantial progress made: Mahabuba Nasreen

There is no negligence in our effort: Mr. Ali Ahmed

Need to change the mindset to start with: Abu Bakar Siddique

Accident 2014

Women in Peril at Road Accidents

Death by Drowning

Riverine accident

Natural Disaster 2014

Flood Situation 2014

Cold Wave 2014

Lightening 2014

Appendix

Women in Disaster Bangladesh | 2014

Bangladesh Disaster Report

This publication has been produced with financial aid of Oxfam. The views expressed herein should not be taken, in anyway, to reflect the official opinion of Oxfam